ORLANDO'S ONLY CONDO-HOTEL RESORT SPA NOW OPEN
Father's Day Relaxation Packages Available

ORLANDO, Fla. (June 3, 2008) – Lake Buena Vista Resort Village & Spa has opened Reflections Spa-Salon. It is located in the resort's newest building; a six-story, 61,000-square-foot tower that opened in April and houses the resort's grand reception lobby and guest check-in area.

The 9,000-square-foot spa, nail and hair salon features 12 treatment beds, two private couple's rooms with balconies, separate private lounges for men and women, and original paintings from Ernesto Pintadd.

"Reflections Spa-Salon speaks to the body's natural instinct to pursue relaxation and internal harmony for a day, a vacation or a lifetime," said Spa Director Denise Lynn Smith. Spa services include:

- Customized massage body therapies
- Customized Phytoceane facials for women, men and teens
- Phytoceane body treatments and wraps
- State-of-the-art hydrotherapy seahorse bath therapies
- Barber Spa providing hair and facial services for men
- Susan Posnick Mineral make-up, Goldwell & Alterna hair products, and OPI nail services
- A co-ed relaxation area featuring a salt water aquarium stocked with seahorses
- Seahorse retail boutique
- Group services

Reflections Spa-Salon is offering two relaxation packages in June for Father's Day:

- Hole in One Golf Fit Package that pairs a golf specific massage with a "MAN"icure hand grooming treat.
- $25 off any 50 minute single service and $30 off any 80 minute single service.
